Executive items

Accounting

Melissa Barbour has joined WebsterRogers as a senior tax accountant in the Charleston office. She is a certified public accountant and has five years of experience in the public accounting and tax industry. She has a bachelor’s degree in business administration and accounting from James Madison University and a master’s degree in accounting from the College of Charleston.

Education

Newton Myvett has been named campus president for the Art Institute of Charleston. He has more than 20 years of experience in higher education administration. Previously, he was vice president of admissions for The Art Institutes. He also has served as president for campuses in Austin, Texas and Phoenix.

Grocery

Craig Massey has been promoted to vice president of human resources at Charleston-based Piggy Wiggly Carolina Co. Inc. He has been with the company for 27 years. Most recently, he was director of human resources. He has a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the College of Charleston.

Law

Mary B. Ramsay has joined Smith Moore Leatherwood LLP as an attorney in the firm’s Charleston litigation group. Previously, she was a law clerk for Circuit Court Judge Roger Young. She has a law degree from the Charleston School of Law.

Nonprofit

Chris Tweedy has been named development officer for Trident Habitat for Humanity. He has 15 years of experience in fundraising and institutional advancement.

Lisa Potts has joined Parents Anonymous as state director. She has more than 20 years of experience in the nonprofit field. Most recently, she was public policy and advocacy director for the S.C. Center for Fathers and Families. She has a bachelor’s degree in accounting from Columbia College and a law degree from the University of South Carolina School of Law.

Port

Anthony Shuler Jr. has joined the S.C. State Ports Authority as community relations associate. Previously, he was with the U.S. Department of Transportation Maritime Administration in Washington, D.C. He has a bachelor’s degree in English from Claflin University and a master’s degree in transportation from South Carolina State University.

Real estate

Dave Caddell has joined Carolina One Real Estate as an agent based in the Mount Pleasant North office. He has more than 15 years of experience in medical and pharmaceutical sales. Previously, he was area vice president for Gentiva Home, Health and Hospice. He has degrees in psychology and business from Augusta State University.

Heather Burnett has joined Dishner Hamrick & Myers Real Estate as an agent. Previously, she was with Carolina One Real Estate. She has a bachelor’s degree from the University of South Carolina.

Restaurant

Bonnie Rhinehardt has joined Mount Pleasant-based Wild Wing Cafe as chief restaurant officer. Previously, she was president of Petrus Brands Planet Smoothie. She also worked for more than 20 years with Hooters of America, most recently as divisional vice president.

Retail

Bart Manley has been named manager of The Charleston Angler based in the Summersville store. Previously, he was at the company’s City Market location. He has a bachelor’s degree in English from Francis Marion University.

Transportation

Rachel Kosiba has been named terminal manager for the ASF Intermodal’s Charleston drayage facility. She has six years of industry experience. Previously, she has worked at Eleets Transportation and Southern Cal Transport. She has a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of South Carolina.

Submissions

DEADLINE: Noon Wednesday for the following Monday’s publication.

MAIL: Business Links, The Post and Courier, 134 Columbus St., Charleston, SC 29403-4800.

FAX: 937-5579.

E-MAIL: bizlinks@postandcourier.com.

GUIDELINES: Information is subject to editing, and publication of information or photos is not guaranteed. Business Review makes every effort to publish items received in the next edition, but space constraints might cause delays. Headshots are welcome for publications. For prints, the subject’s name and company must be printed clearly on the back. Prints can be returned only if a stamped, addressed envelope is provided.