AIGA (American Institute of Graphic Arts) is affiliated with the Houston chapter of AIGA, is committed to the development students taking the first step in demonstrating a commitment and understanding of the profession by providing opportunities for student involvement in the local design community and build leadership skills that will be valuable as they move into the professional world. The sponsor is Larry McEntire, Associate Professor in Graphic Design. For more information: lmcentire@aii.edu

THE ANIMATION CLUB lets students come together to share industry information, production tips, and support. The sponsor is Jonathan Nelson, Associate Professor in Media Arts & Animation. For more information: jonnelson@aii.edu

THE ART INSTITUTE OF HOUSTON AUDIO ENGINEERING SOCIETY connects audio production students with the professional organization. Audio Engineering Society student members will network with audio professionals in multiple facets of the recording industry and participate in local as well as regional events. The sponsor of this club is Dr. Nicolai Jacobsen, Assistant Professor in Audio Production. For more information: njacobsen@aii.edu

THE ART INSTITUTE OF HOUSTON COMIC CREATORS CLUB brings students together to discuss, critique and create comics. The sponsors of this club are Kevin Richert, Associate Professor in Media Arts and Animation and Meredith Cunningham, Program Coordinator in Design. For more information: krichert@aol.com

FASHION S.T.A.R.S. (Students Taking Academic Responsibility Seriously) brings awareness to the true essence of fashion and how it serves a function for individuals in various circumstances. It is our goal to uphold a socially responsible agenda that includes service to the student body and community. The sponsor of this club is Jane Carlton Hall, Assistant Professor in Fashion & Retail Management. For more information: jhall@aii.edu

THE FILM CLUB is for motivated students interested in the entire filmmaking process; from story-boarding, to filming, to editing, and finally the finished product. The sponsor of this club is Lionell Hilliard, Program Coordinator for Media Arts.. For more information: lhilliard@aii.edu

IDPO (Interior Design Professional Organization) raises awareness among students on the need to transform the way buildings and communities are designed, built and operated, enabling an environmentally and socially responsible, healthy, and prosperous environment that improves the quality of life. Members will work to inspire other interior design students by conducting informative meetings, encouraging participation in community events and design competitions, and organizing educational study groups. The sponsor of this club is Rex Spencer, Associate Professor in Interior Design. For more information: mspencer@aii.edu

NATIONAL TECHNICAL HONOR SOCIETY: is a nationally recognized program that promotes scholastic achievement in occupational education. The Society encourages professional excellence, responsibility, community participation and leadership. Members have participated in activities such as mentoring other students and leading school tours. They have also joined in community events such as food drives, holiday toy drives for underprivileged children and the AIDS Walk Houston. To be inducted, students must maintain a 3.5 GPA or above, have a good attendance record and demonstrate the ideals of service, leadership and professional development. The sponsor of this organization is Daisy Durham, Instructor in General Education. For more information: ddurham@aii.edu

THE PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB encourages the development of photographic skills through education, exhibitions, networking with others who share a love of photography and to sharing our talents with individuals and organizations in the Houston area. The sponsor of this club is James Stevens, Associate Professor in Photography. For more information: jrstevens@aii.edu

THE POETRY CLUB promotes appreciation and awareness of the art of poetry through publications such as The Keyhole poetry journal, on campus events such as Library poetry readings and off-campus through our continuing Poetry Reading Series. The sponsor of this club is Ken Jones, Instructor in General Education. For more information: khjones@aii.edu

THE VETERAN’S CLUB of The Art Institute of Houston provides support for veteran’s of the Armed Forces in their search of higher education. The club is open to all veteran students as well as others, such as spouses, children and friends, having an interest in participating. We offer a liaison for new veterans who are integrating into the school system, as well as promote opportunity for further education to veterans who are looking for new careers. The sponsors of this club are Cliff Wilson, Associate Director of Readmissions, and Joan Perry, Associate Registrar. For more information: ewillson@aii.edu

THE VIDEO GAME SOCIETY is a social organization for the study of video games and the discovery of game creation. This hosts gaming meetings and tournaments throughout the quarter. Meetings to work on the creation of new games are also held. The sponsor of this club is Lionell Hilliard, Program Coordinator, Media. For more information: lhilliard@aii.edu